Ishanya to inaugurate Pune's finest art gallery
Inaugural show to feature India's best known artists

Pune: May, 13th '08: ISHANYA, India's largest Design Centre and Specialty Mall, will now house Pune's finest art gallery – The Tilting Art Gallery. The inaugural show at this art gallery will be held on May 20, and will feature some of India's finest artists such as Satish Gujral, MF Hussain, Laxman Pai, Jehangir Jani, Sanjoy Bhattacharya, as well as a number of upcoming artists.

Pune has rarely if ever seen such a magnificent collection. Not only will rare oils and charcoals by Satish Gujral be on show but also limited edition prints of other greats like M. F. Hussain.

Mrs. Bijal Meswani, wife of the Executive director of Reliance Industries Limited, will inaugurate the first show of the gallery.

Mrs. Sarayu Doshi, director of NGMA, National Gallery of Modern Art, Mumbai will also be present at the inaugural show to share her thoughts on art with special emphasis on Indian art.

One of the artists, Sonali Pithawe, will also be present during the evening.

Mrs. Parul Mehta, Director, Deepak Fertilisers And Petrochemicals Corp Ltd and Mrs. Monika Trivedi are patrons for the show.

A space set within a breathtaking work of architecture, Ishanya, the Tilting Art Gallery measures 1490 square feet and slopes gently into the Kund, the waterbody at Ishanya's amphitheatre. It is a venue unlike any other in Pune, being specially designed for art with world class lighting and display systems specially created to enhance any displays done within its space. The Tilting Art gallery is located in close proximity to Ishanya's restaurants and high-end lifestyle / luxury collectibles outlets with its own entrances and exits to the left of Ishanya's grand entrance arcade.
